

Cross Country Meet
 SW Randolph, E Randolph at Asheboro
 August 30, 2022

The Asheboro Blue Comets won both men's and women non-conference cross country matches in a home meet on Tuesday. Southwestern Randolph Cougars finished second in both, with Eastern Randolph's sole runner placing first individually for the girls' team.

In the boys' race, Comet senior Seth Hydzik and Cougar junior Aiden Pritchard battled to the finish line, as Hydzik edged his opponent. A trio of AHS seniors, David Curtis, Hunter Wilson and Nicholas Garcia, were next across the line, with Cougars' Vince Ornelas and Reese Poe following in sixth and seventh places. Comet sophomore Ryland Auler completed the scoring for the Comets.

Rounding out the top 10 Comets were freshman Jacob Leveille, sophomore John Hunsucker, junior Isaac Martinez, senior Will Kelley and junior Wes Redding. Completing the Cougar scoring were Sam Hanson (14th), and Bryce Brown (15th).

In the girls' meet, ERHS senior Brecken Snotherly outpaced all female runners with a time of 18 minutes.

AHS runner Natalie Flores, finishing second, was the top scoring runner, followed by Cougar Sadie Mabe; Comet Liberty Adams; Cougars Autumn Jones and Jayden Alexander; Comets Carlisle Dozier, Emma Dobbins, Emma Redding and Samantha Kozlowski; and Cougar Jordan Cox.

The Comets travel to Oak Grove Sept. 13 for their conference opener.
