

The 2019 Courier-Tribune All-County Softball Team

Sydney Cox
Asheboro
Junior/Shortstop

A finalist for player of the year, she hit .647 for the season with an on-base percentage of .727. She had a slugging percentage of 1.176. She was a solid defensive player as well for the Blue Comets.

Emily LaClair
Asheboro
Junior/Outfield

She was another potent bat for the Blue Comets, finishing with a batting average of .525. Her on-base percentage of .612 and slugging percentage of .700 were among the best on the team.

Jenna Thompson
Asheboro
Junior/Pitcher

She took a big leap this year on the mound for the Blue Comets, finishing with a 9-2 record. She also hit .486 for the season.

Courtnee Carter
Eastern Randolph
Sophomore/Infielder

The Wildcats' leadoff hitter, she was a sparkplug for the offense. She scored 28 runs and recorded 13 steals while registering 36 hits on the season.

Kelsey Craven
Eastern Randolph
Junior/Catcher

She had another fantastic season, hitting .525 with 28 RBIs and four home runs, including three in the regional tournament. She was a solid backstop as well.

Aniyah King
Eastern Randolph
Senior/Outfielder

She was impressive at the plate and in the field as she finished with a batting average of .445. She knocked in 17 runs and scored 33 times. She also had 26 stolen bases.

Brooklyn Rush
Eastern Randolph
Junior/Shortstop

She hit .375 and knocked in 33 runs this season for the Wildcats and was strong defensively throughout the year. She committed just three errors all season.

Maddie Hunt
Providence Grove
Junior/Outfielder

She recorded 44 hits on the season, registering a .494 average. She scored 27 runs and knocked in 10 from the leadoff spot. She stole 12 bases and was strong defensively.

Makayla McClain
Providence Grove
Freshman/Infielder

A finalist for player of the year, she had a whopping .552 batting average with 32 hits, 28 RBIs and 10 stolen bases. She was a clutch player.

File Photo

TOP AWARD — Eastern Randolph High School sophomore Savannah Beaver was named The Courier-Tribune Player of the Year.

Beaver named Player of Year

From staff reports

Savannah Beaver could beat a team from the mound or at the plate.

The sophomore left-hander recorded 23 wins on the season with 198 strikeouts and an ERA of 0.53 in a whopping 191 1/3 innings, pitching every inning but four for the Wildcats during the season.

Offensively, she batted .425 with 23 RBIs. She recorded 10 doubles on the season.

For her efforts, Beaver has been named The Courier-Tribune player of the year.

The Courier-Tribune Coach of the Year Award goes to Eastern Randolph High School's La-Vette Graham, who led the Wildcats to the state 2-A championship series.

Providence Grove High School's Tim Brown was also considered for the honor.

Honorable Mention

Taylor Hildreth (Asheboro), Kaleigh Craft (Wheatmore), Kennedy Thrift (Wheatmore), Emily Lane (WHHS), Victoria Blevins (WHHS), Savannah Fauber (Trinity), Kara Henderson (Trinity), Peyton Boone (Trinity), Sydney Kearns (Trinity) Aaliyah Ratcliff (Randleman), Makenzie Webster (Randleman), Jessica McNeill (ER), Olivia Hall (ER) and Courtney Chriscoe (SWR).

The All-County Softball Team is based on recommendations from head coaches, statistics, attitude, sportsmanship and overall contributions to the team.

MaKenna Sibbett
Providence Grove
Junior/Pitcher

She was a workhorse on the mound for the Patriots, finishing with a 15-6 record and a 2.24 ERA. She recorded 70 strikeouts while hitting .371 with 14 RBIs.

Tatum Smith
Providence Grove
Senior/3B

Called the heart and soul of the team, she was a strong defensive player who contributed quite a bit at the plate. She hit .459 with 33 RBIs.

Sam Welch
Providence Grove
Senior/Infielder

She led the team with 40 RBIs on the season. She recorded 34 hits, batting .466, providing the Patriots with a key stick in their order.

Bethany Dobias
Randleman
Sophomore/Outfielder

She showed plenty of improvement, finishing with a .475 batting average. She had six extra-base hits and knocked in 19 runs on the season.

Chloe Hicks
Randleman
Junior/3B

She hit .505 on the season, one of the top hitting marks on the team. She had six doubles and eight extra-base hits and finished with a .667 slugging percentage.

Karley Hughes
Randleman
Senior/1B

She led the team with a batting average of .525. She had nine doubles and played very well at first base for the Tigers.

Sarah Rice
Randleman
Sophomore/Pitcher

She has a very bright future. As a sophomore, she struck out 144 batters in 89 innings and was named the top pitcher in a very pitching-rich PAC. She was 10-2 with a 1.30 ERA and she hit .405 with two home runs.

Hailee Cagle
SW Randolph
Junior/Catcher

She has a lot of knowledge and a lot of talent. She hit .487 on the season with 11 RBIs. She had an on-base percentage of .580 and a slugging percentage of .820.

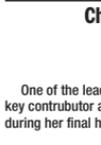

Alex Coleman
SW Randolph
Sophomore/Infielder

An incredible slap-hitter, she hit .580 for the Cougars and had an on-base percentage of .720. She scored 12 times and set the tone offensively for SWR.

Heaven Maness
SW Randolph
Junior/Pitcher

She was one of the top two-way players in the county, finishing with a .466 batting average and an .878 slugging percentage. On the mound, she hurled the Cougars to some big wins.

Christen Rosenbaum
Trinity
Senior/Pitcher

One of the leaders for her team, she was a key contributor at the plate and on the mound during her final high school season.

Skyler Swaney
Wheatmore
Senior/Pitcher

She hit .377 with 26 hits and 23 RBIs for the Warriors. She scored 17 runs and had six doubles. On the mound, she won seven games with a 2.71 ERA.

Abbey Parrish
Wheatmore
Junior/3B

She led the team with a .385 batting average, recording 25 hits, 17 RBIs and scoring 18 times. She had nine extra-base hits, including six doubles and one home run.